

IAPRI CAREER START AWARD Sponsored by Dr. Paul Singh

Purpose of the Award

To provide a packaging researcher, who has not yet participated at a IAPRI Conference, with the incentive to be a first time research paper presenter and accelerate their knowledge and understanding of the IAPRI member resources by networking and interacting with a wide range of dedicated professionals working in all segments of packaging research, testing and education.

Award: One award of $1,000 US

Eligibility

- This award is open to any researcher from an IAPRI member who is accepted to present a paper at either an IAPRI World or Member Conference.
- The presentation will be given in-person at the conference unless an all virtual event.
- Applicants must currently be the primary researcher and paper author.
- In addition, applicants must not have attended any previous IAPRI conferences, but may have participated in an IAPRI conference as a local volunteer.

Winner Selection: The winner will be picked by a random drawing of names from all eligible presenters who have submitted an application form by the abstract deadline.

Application: Print your name and sign. Return this as a PDF file to Ed Church, IAPRI Secretary General at sg@iapri.org at the time of your abstract submission.

Your signature verifies that you meet the eligibility requirement state above.
